
Ares III Electronic Watchman System

Portable Data Recorder M4000
Recording at the touch of a button

Tour Guard Electronic Watchman System

Benefits

- Simple Operation
- Electronic Time Registrations - No Need to Buy Special Time "Disks"
- Computer Interface Offers Better Reporting Formats

Reports

- Tour Sheet
- Areas Report
- Shifts Report

Features

- Data from the M4000 Recorder is Downloaded Directly Into the Computer Through a Serial Cable, No Docking Station is Needed
- Over 2000 Registrations Can Be Stored
- Expandable: Additional Tour Recorders (M4000), Guard Badge Buttons and Recording Stations Can Be Added as Needed
- No Recharging is Required for the M4000 Recorder
- ARES III Software Operates on Windows 95/98/2000/NT 4.0 (with Latest Service Pack)
- Works by a Simple Touch...Security Guards Simply Touch the M4000 Recorder to a Recording Station Button to Record the Date & Time of His or Her Patrol.
- Rugged Recorder Made of Reinforced Polycarbonate is Tamper Proof
- System Includes: M4000 Recorder w/Carrying Case & Strap, Ares III Software & Manual on CD, DB9 Interface Cable, Two Guard Badge Buttons & 10 Recording Station Buttons w/Mounts
- An Optional Incident Pad Can Be Used to Define Conditions at Locations, ie, "Door Unlocked, Window Opened", etc.

Global Time Systems – 228 East 10th Street – Newport, Ky 41071
1 (859) 261-9300 – 1 (800) 348-8463 – Fax: 1 (859) 261-1418
